Lightroom: Crafting the Fine Photograph with Tim Cooper

Friday, January 11 – Sunday, January 13, 2019

Fee: $395 for CVPS members

Back by popular demand! CVPS is excited to welcome nationally recognized photography instructor Tim Cooper for an intensive workshop for those who are new to or somewhat familiar with Adobe Lightroom® and for all those who want to take their post-processing skills to the next level. Tim will cover the complete Lightroom® workflow. Emphasis will be placed on developing efficient work habits and producing meaningful photography. This is a hands-on workshop, so you will practice on your own laptop as you learn. With Tim as your instructor, the weekend is guaranteed to be information-packed — and fun at the same time.

Workshop highlights:

- Creating a safe and efficient Lightroom® Catalog.
- Setting preferences.
- In-depth study of the Library Module: Steps to create a workflow that fits your style/needs. Lessons on creating dramatic and meaningful photography.
- In-depth study of the Develop Module
 - Using the Develop Module to improve the impact of your images.
 - Portrait Retouching: Methods of improving photos using Localized Adjustments.
 - Creating Presets to allow more time behind the camera instead of the computer.
- Discussion on how Lightroom® manages Library and Developing metadata.
- Developing a manageable keyword system.
- Secrets to selecting and culling your imports.
- Producing usable collections.
- Purchasing and developing a quick and reliable back up system for your photographs.
- Preparing your images for print.
- Exporting your photos from Lightroom® into Photoshop or external plugins.
- Using the export dialog box for quick and easy emails and copies...plus much more.

$395 CVPS member/ $460 non-member

(non-member fee includes annual membership dues)

Workshop is limited to 18 participants

Participants must bring their own laptops with the latest version of Lightroom® installed and ready to use. The workshop is classroom-based at the Courtyard by Marriott-Stow and meets Friday through Sunday, 9:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m. with an hour lunch break.

Register through the CVPS website (cvps.org) or call the Conservancy for the Cuyahoga Valley National Park at (330) 657-2909 extension 100.

Note: Lodging, meals and transportation not included in the registration fee.

Monthly presentations

Monthly presentations are designed for people interested in photography and those who want to improve their photographic skills. The programs cover a broad range of topics from instructional sessions to programs that help us learn about what we photograph. They are free and open to the public.

Check www.cvps.org or the CVPS Facebook page for updates to this calendar of events.

Tim Cooper

Composition: The Art of Seeing

Wednesday, January 9, 2019 – 7 p.m., Hudson Public Library
(Please note special date and program venue)

Join professional photographer and instructor Tim Cooper for an information-packed program on photographic composition. Tim will show you how to bring what you see to your finished image. Tim will cover how the eyes of the viewer move through a photograph, the basic building blocks of composition and common pitfalls to avoid. He also will discuss how positioning and lens focal length alter the perception of a scene.

Members' Show

Viewing and Critique of Members' Recent Images

Wednesday, February 20, 2019 – 7 p.m., Happy Days Lodge

Members of the Cuyahoga Valley Photo Society are invited to bring up to three images of recent work to the February meeting to share. An optional critique of the images will be offered by professional photographers. Please visit the Photo Society gallery web page at www.cvps.org to view the requirements for the images submitted for review and critique.

Brian Wilson

Exploring Our World

Wednesday, March 20, 2019 – 7 p.m., Happy Days Lodge

From the time he was young, Brian Wilson has been exploring the natural world around him. He honed his skills in Boy Scouts and with experience. Brian considers himself an explorer first, and photographer second. Join the 2017 CVPS “Best of Show” award winner as he discusses how to he finds places to explore, how he prepares for exploring, and what equipment he uses. Safety is important, as photographers may often be in areas few have trod. His recent interests include waterfalls, as well as other natural landscapes. Brian will include images and stories from his adventures.

Dwight Chasar

Famous People and their Fowl Obsessions

Wednesday, April 17, 2019 – 7 p.m., Happy Days Lodge

Dwight Chasar has been active in many aspects of ornithology in northeast Ohio for many years, leading bird walks, surveying bird populations and being an active participant in many bird-oriented organizations. In this presentation, Dwight looks at famous people—from political and sports figures to actors, music composers and Nobel Prize winners — among the 75 million people in North America who watch birds. He will talk about the impact that bird watching has had on their careers and their private lives. In addition, Dwight will relate some surprising and interesting facts about these famous bird watchers, and try to identify birds that these people favored in their hobby.

Linda Butler

Lake Erie: On the Edge

Wednesday, May 15, 2019 – 7 p.m., Happy Days Lodge

For those of us who see Lake Erie every day, the water and the sky create a mesmerizing, ever-changing tableau, but over time the lake begins to look predictable and we forget its importance in our lives. In Lake Erie: on the Edge, Linda Butler sees not only the beauty of natural habitats but also how industry, farming, shipping, railroads, human habitation, recreation, and natural areas all compete for space. Linda's photographs are unusual; they raise questions and help reawaken our curiosity and commitment to protect this jewel in our midst.

Linda has worked as an independent art photographer for more than 40 years, publishing four books and having more than 45 solo exhibitions in galleries and museums in the United States, Canada and Japan.

CVPS Experiment: Photographic PechaKucha

Wednesday, June 19, 2019 – 7 p.m., Happy Days Lodge

Our PechaKucha presentations will use a 20-by-20 rule (20 slides, 20 seconds per slide) to share multiple fast-paced, themed portfolios. We hope to use this format for future member programs and decided that the Steering Committee should be the first to demonstrate the PechaKucha style at a Photo Society meeting. Come out and watch the experiment.

Betsy Banks

Beyond the Single Image: Working in Multiples

Wednesday, September 18, 2019 – 7 p.m., Happy Days Lodge

Explore the creative possibilities of working with multiple images – not just to make a collage, but to create a unified concept that conveys something more than the individual parts. Betsy will share a personal project that focuses on creating images that incorporate more than one photo. She will talk about some advantages and challenges of working in multiples, tips for laying out grids, and share examples so you can see what type of photo grid you might be inspired to create with your own work.
